Herb de Provence Goat Cheese Tortilla “Terrine”

Serves 1

Ingredients:

3 each 12" Tomato Basil Wraps (10250)
7 oz. Goat / Chevre Cheese
7 oz. Cream Cheese
1 1/2 tsp. Herbes de Provence
2 each Large Eggs
8 oz. vol. Blanched White Potatoes skinned and cut into 2" batons
6 oz. wt. Herbes de Provence Roasted Chicken, see recipe
7 oz. vol. Zucchini skins, julienne/matchstick cut into 2" strips
6 oz. vol. Yellow Squash skins, julienne/matchstick cut into 2" strips
10 oz. vol. Mixed Greens
1 1/2 oz. vol. Sundried Tomatoes or Balsamic Vinaigrette

Directions:

1. Spray 11 x 3 1/2" terrine mold with pan spray.
2. Line terrine with plastic wrap leaving enough overhang to seal. Press plastic wrap against sides of terrine so there are no air pockets.
3. Heat 3 each sundried tomato basil tortillas and carefully layer across entire terrine mold (tortillas will overlap).
4. Gently press tortillas down on all sides against plastic wrap, making sure not to tear tortillas.
5. Tortillas should be flush against all sides of the terrine. (tortillas should be slightly higher than height of terrine to close at the end)
6. Spread 3 oz. of goat cheese custard evenly over bottom of tortillas.
7. Lay potato batons in a single layer across entire terrine, not overlapping. Gently press potatoes into custard.
8. Spread potatoes with 2 oz. of custard.
9. Lay pulled chicken evenly across potatoes, again, gently press chicken gently into custard and potatoes. (Pressing after each layer should help reduce any air pockets.)
